OFFER MAY LEAD TO PARK FOR SONOMA

Oil Company to Offer Substantial Rent for Oil Station Location on Southwest Corner of Plaza.

Sonoma's long dream of having a beautiful park may be shortly realized if the offer said to have been tendered by one of the big oil companies to the city trustees is favorably considered. While it has not been officially taken up as yet the proposition is said to be an offer of $100 per month for the rental of the southwest corner of the Plaza for an oil and gas station, the station to be modern and up to the high standard maintained by the company in other cities.

It appears that the oil representatives have been considering putting in a station here for some time and observing the condition of Sonoma's Plaza and the sentiment for its improvement, decided to negotiate for a portion of the city's property instead of leasing or purchasing a location from private parties. It is said that the trustees are inclined to look favorably on the offer, realizing that with $100 coming in from the Plaza that the money could be applied to its beautification and in time Sonoma could boast of a park second to none in this part of California.

Trustee Ed Lindley declares that the proposition sounds good to him and points out that in neighboring cities the oil and gas stations are neatly kept up and occupy some of the most prominent localities in town.

The matter may be formally presented to the Board shortly and will be gone into thoroughly by the city dads.

FINE HOME IS SOLD TO LAMBERTS

Mrs. L. McElroy Disposes of Residence and May Travel Abroad Before Rebuilding.

Mrs. Louisa McElroy this week sold her beautiful home on Broadway to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lambert, lately of Buffalo, New York. The newcomers liked Sonoma so well that after being here but a few weeks, they decided to locate permanently. The McElroy home which they purchased is one of the finest in Sonoma. The price paid is said to have been close to $6000. The house consists of nine rooms, spacious porches, cellar and modern outbuildings. The lot is 100 X 245 feet and runs through from Broadway to First St. West. The grounds are set out to flowers and fruit and there are many fine varieties of both on the premises. Mrs. McElroy disposed of the attractive place because she found it too much to take care of now that her daughters are married and she was alone.

Mrs. McElroy plans to give up possession February first and in the summer may take a trip to Hanover, Germany, to visit her sisters before relocating in Sonoma. She may build a little bungalow for herself after her return from Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert, the purchasers of the property have given permission to Miss Burt, the High School teacher and her aunt to remain as tenants until the close of the summer school term. The Burt's have been renting part of the house.

One of Sonoma's charming widows is reported to have decided to again embark on the sea of matrimony.

ATTEND THIS MEETING FOR EXPANSION AND RE-ORGANIZATION OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

ALL SONOMA VALLEY MUST UNITE IN ORDER TO GET AN EFFECTIVE WORKING ORGANIZATION. MEETING TO BE HELD AT UNION HALL THURS. EVE. JAN. 19

Next Thursday night in Union Hall a meeting has been called to which everybody in Sonoma Valley is invited. It has for its purpose the expansion and re-organization of the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce and whether you now belong or not or whether you are affiliated with any other improvement club or organization makes no difference. Your presence is requested at this meeting when a representative of the American City Bureau will be here to tell Sonoma Valley how it can have one of the most effective and useful promotion organizations in Northern California. Sonoma City or El Verano or Boyes Springs or Fetters or Glen Ellen cannot put over the program alone. To have a good Chamber of Commerce Sonoma Valley must unite and instead of having less than 100 members we can have an organization of 500 members. A year or so ago Santa Rosa had a membership of 218 in its Chamber of Commerce and an income of $10,000 per annum. Now the membership numbers 542 and an income of $24,500. Benicia, Fresno, Napa, Cloverdale, Sebastopol and Petaluma all have benefited by the expert advice of the American City Bureau. James G. Stafford of Santa Rosa said something when he declared "employment of outside experts is becoming a more and more recognized feature in all phases of American life and business."

It is just as important to have experts in organization work as in other activities such as auditing a set of books, building of bridges or irrigation systems.

Sonoma Valley can never attain its rightful position as the most popular and attractive suburb of San Francisco even with all its manifold attractions and advantages unless the people who live here believe in its future and show that they are willing to perform actual service on the map. "The individual who is willing to absorb all that he can out of a place and give nothing in return furnishes encouragement for the destructive tendencies instead of fostering constructive influences." The expert on organization who is coming here next Thursday night will show that the Bureau's educational work rests on the promise that substantial community development must come primarily from making the community a better place to live and do business. Its main purpose is to develop a greater willingness to work unselfishly for the community's advancement. It rises above all pettiness and local differences and unites the community into a splendid working body. The committee which is arranging the meeting in Union Hall promises some musical numbers in addition to the speaking and refreshments in keeping with famed Sonoma Valley hospitality. Be there at 8 p. m.

MRS. EMILY S. LOUD PASSES TO ETERNITY

Death of Prominent Educator and Former Resident of Sonoma Occurred in San Francisco.

Mrs. Emily S. Loud, long identified with education in San Francisco and who formerly had resided in Sonoma where she came in pioneer days as a young woman, passed to eternity Saturday in San Francisco after a short illness. Her strength had been failing for some time past and upon her last visit to Sonoma her friends expressed grave anxiety over her condition. Some few years ago she retired from the school department of San Francisco where for many years she was a prominent teacher.

Mrs. Loud came to California from Boston and settled in Sonoma in 1864. She often told of the fascination of the early days here and the novelty of seeing Indians and other reminders of the frontier life after coming direct from the cultured centers of Massachusetts. Her husband was Alfred C. Loud, who settled on what was afterward the Appleton ranch. He subsequently died in the Islands.

Mrs. Loud for a time made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Thomas on Broadway and not long ago presented an oil painting of Mr. Thomas, a deceased pioneer, as a gift to the city of Sonoma. At the death of the Thomases, Mrs. Loud was left the property near the Sonoma High School which she lately disposed of.

A lady of culture and refinement, Mrs. Loud was for many years a welcome visitor here, for after returning to San Francisco she was still loyal to old Sonoma and always declared that our city had a great fascination for her. Endowed with considerable literary ability she was working on a history of the old families and halcyon days of early Sonoma when Death called her to broader fields of usefulness.

The funeral was held on Tuesday in San Francisco where she had resided with relatives. She left a sister, Josephine Dye, and a number of nephews.

NEW WOOD AND COAL YARD OPENS HERE

Jacobson's wood and coal yard is a new Sonoma business concern which has been located on property recently bought from Joe Ryan, next to the telephone office and is now ready for business. Jacobson has a big supply of wood, kindling and coal and promises satisfaction to his customers and prompt delivery service. The big auto truck also enables the firm to do a general express and hauling business. Their share of public patronage is solicited by the firm. See ad.

BUCK HOLLEY WINS IN OAKLAND EVENT

Buck Holley, star of the Parente training camp took the honors at the main event in Oakland Auditorium on Wednesday night, taking an easy victory over Sammy Pelsinger. Holley opened up in the fourth round and showed the gallery what Verano ozone does for a boxer's storage tank. Pelsinger took his punishment well but was no match for the sturdy Buck when he opened up in earnest and clinched the decision.

LOCAL MERCHANT FILES BANKRUPTCY PETITION

M. Kaplan the local merchant, has filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in the courts of San Francisco. The correct amount of his assets and liabilities have not as yet been given out.

ANNOUNCEMENT

J. B. Parrent, the tailor, who has just finished installing some up-to-date power machinery for cleaning clothes, wishes to announce that he is now prepared to receive any kind of work in that line. Mr. Parrent is a tailor of many years experience, and whatever he undertakes, either in cleaning or making of new clothes he fully guarantees satisfaction to his customers. Located on First Street West, near N. W. P. Depot.

SEBASTIANI REBUILD- ING WEYL'S CORNER

Contractor Murphy Rushes Improvement of Three-Story Structure and Will Also Build Bungalows.

Weyl's Hall, one of Sonoma's landmarks, built in 1880 by the late Henry Weyl on his property on the North west corner of the Plaza, is being reconstructed into a modern three story hotel building by its recent purchaser, Sam Sebastiani. The exterior will be finished in stucco and a balcony will encircle the building at the second floor. The ground floor will contain a spacious lobby, dining room, wash rooms and kitchen with a three room apartment for the hotel's proprietor. The second floor will contain eight rooms with baths attached, trunk and closet room etc. On the third floor there will be twelve rooms with baths and toilets at the end of the hall. An automatic water system will supply hot and cold water. The roof will be of galvanized iron.

Cement sidewalks and curbs are now being laid along the frontage of the property and Mr. Sebastiani will also begin the erection of four bungalows adjoining the new hotel.

The improvements will add greatly to the appearance of our city and Mr. Sebastiani's advent as an investor in the business district of Sonoma means much to its future.

WOMAN PRISONER SHIES AT HERDING GOATS

Betty Carey, first arrival at the Buena Vista State Farm, having been committed this week from San Francisco where she was found around old haunts after being ordered to leave town, tried to escape from the farm the day she arrived.

She was finally recaptured by Miss Engelhardt in the hills. In her wanderings Betty met up with a workman on the institution grounds. "Hello, cull," she called out, "got the makings? Or a cigarette about you?" She was told by the busy mechanic that he smoked a pipe only, whereupon she importuned him for that but was disappointed.

"Kind of tough on a bird like me to be sent up to the tall and uncut herding goats," Betty volunteered, "after being a vag in Frisco all these years."

Just about this time the alert Miss Engelhardt took her patient into custody and revoked her parole.

The State Farm is to be more strictly disciplined when the full quota of women arrive and rehabilitation work gets fully under way. Miss Engelhardt will teach the women prisoners farming and try to establish an interest and love in them for the great out-of-doors.

SECOND TRAPPE CHARGE HAS BEEN DISMISSED

Adolph Trappe, acquitted by a jury last week in Santa Rosa on a serious charge involving his young step-daughter, and who was re-arrested for alleged similar conduct with another step daughter, was ordered discharged from custody, the District Attorney believing the evidence against him insufficient. The first case was threshed out, the mother, daughter and accused all being called to the witness stand. The jury was out 45 minutes and decided to acquit. A District Attorney, who prosecuted, saw no chance to convict in the second instance so advised Judge Small to dismiss the action. It is said that the divorce action brought by Mrs. Trappe against her husband has been dropped.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK HAS PROSPEROUS YEAR

The annual meeting of the officers of the First National Bank of Sonoma was held Tuesday evening and a review of the bank's affairs during the past year showed that the stockholders had much to be proud of and that the bank was making substantial growth. The directors elected were as follows: Messrs. Fred Batto, N. J. Heggie, L. H. Green, G. Proletti and Henry R. Rabke.

S. Ronconi and daughter have returned to Sonoma and will reside here. They have been stopping at the El Dorado hotel.

BRIDEGROOM DIES ON TRAIN EN ROUTE HOME

Joseph Stornetti, Who Had Been Visiting Here While on Honeymoon, Suddenly Expired.

Joseph Stornetti, a relative of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stornetti, who have a large dairy ranch near here, met a sad death while on his way home to Fort Bragg with his bride. The couple had been visiting with their Sonoma friends and relatives and had been the recipients of happy congratulations and much hospitality as they had come from Switzerland on their honeymoon Mr. Stornetti having gone to the old country and claimed a bride. Last Saturday the happy bridegroom and his wife started for their ranch up north and while aboard the Northwestern train Stornetti suddenly complained of feeling very ill. Passengers on the train declared that the stricken man told his wife that he felt that death was about to overtake him and that he lay down on a car seat, crossed his hands on his breast and expired.

The passing of Mr. Stornetti was particularly sad as he had been married but two months and his Swiss bride does not speak any English and is far away from all her relatives.

Deceased was 45 years of age and had been a resident of Fort Bragg. The remains were taken to Ukiah where an inquest was held.

HORSE RACING A NEEDED TONIC

SPONSORED BY PROMINENT horse breeders and financiers and with all the teeth taken out of the gambling side of it, horse racing bids fair to come back in California. The thrills of it are needed to stir up the red blood of California which has become sluggish through over interest in the mechanical inroad of the automobile. The daredevil kick we get out of auto racing can never supplant the sport of kings, with man's love for the dumb animals and the response intelligent, well bred horses gives to those who recognize their fine equine qualities.

Horse racing is conceded to be the greatest sport in the world and is so recognized by the people of almost every nation. Like other things the United States either abused the sport or could not handle the situation when it fell into the hands of knaves with the usual drastic result.

California should be the king-pin of all the states for this great out-of-doors recreation for it is the natural home of world beaters. What better breeding ground is there in the world than our own fair West? We have already sired some of the best horses that ever looked through a bridle and it is high time we ceased to outlaw them and suppress a pastime which so far outclasses others that it is a downright reflection on our sportsmanship to ban it while tolerating other so-called sports.

Reform will rear up, but Reform has ridden us to death. The country will welcome the unseating of this gaunt and joy-killing pretender and the advent of something to prove that Americans still have mettle, self-possession and fibre and are not forever destined to be automatons designed only for a filtered fool-proof atmosphere. Since our wings have not sprouted in the rare atmosphere to which we have been accustomed heretofore, it would be just as well now to encourage a little natural activity in horse racing and similar pursuits before the always encouraged race for the almighty dollar brings this super generation of ours to the grave.

CONFERENCE SHOULD LIMIT AIRCRAFT CONSTRUCTION

AIR CRAFT WILL DEVELOP RAPIDLY if the Conference puts no limitation on this phase of warfare. Crafty belligerents will concentrate on it and if war ever comes again it will probably come out of a clear sky. It is well that a committee has been asked to further consider air craft elimination for we believe that mature thought will convince that the way is wide open for war as long as the airplane can be exploited at leisure.

War maneuvers of aeroplanes and the circling around of the peace dove do not go together. While declaring a holiday to restrict war expenditures why not make it a holiday also for the sparing of human life through eliminating the necessity of experiments with airplanes. Brilliant and useful lives have been sacrificed in the effort to perfect this device for war's use. Peace would never have demanded the toll that war has forced in its zeal to gird itself with this weapon. It was used promiscuously by young heroes, and a costly and bitter toll it claimed in this and other countries. We have not by any means achieved mastery of the air. So why not take a decade or two off to think it over and make it a more exact science. Surely after our experience in the recent war, where we turned the pride of our young manhood into aviators one night and angels the next it should be plain that we rushed in where angels feared to tread and that a war holiday might well include an abatement of air craft activities. Such toys whet the appetite of conquerors and as instruments of peace do not promise enough to justify their being excepted when figuring on a general plan of disarmament. If nations are to reduce expenses and at the same time quit flirting with death, air craft, a recognized money eater and Reaper's decoy, should be scrapped with the submarine.

GOLF AS AN INVESTMENT

NOT SO LONG AGO folks who were out of touch with riches and fashion knew very little more about golf than what golf caps suggested or what the newspapers told of it as John D. Rockefeller's favorite pastime or what the comic columns stressed of its encouragement to profanity. Suddenly, however, golf became democratic. It was tried out on the masses and not found wanting, particularly as in every community where tried an immense following developed, accelerating business and popularizing localities where golf links were situated. Then wise communities went in for golf and the damn fine advantage of it as a drawing card justified all its little idiosyncrasies.

Sonoma Valley, with its manifold charms and incomparable environment has at last awakened to the necessity of having a golf course set down here, where, in our peerless outdoors, lovers of this great recreation may frolic on the green. The project now under way merits the support of every resident of the valley and whether you expect to ever wallop a golf ball or not or to develop your vocabulary you owe it to your valley to put in this accredited attraction and do your share toward the early realization of the future which the golf links are bound to bring the Vale of the Moon. If you have subscribed and are holding back your money, remember, you are just delaying the project by not coming through. This is no social matter upon which you can afford to dilly-dally. It is a business proposition which you should see through.

CONGRESSMAN RANDALL of Southern California tells us that Maryland, with its oyster, and Rhode Island, with its little neck clam, are two wet states California should not emulate. Our state is with the oysters and clams when it comes to voting wet, our only objection being to hard-shelled reformers, half baked politicians and their kettle of fish.

RICHARDSON AND ROMINGER may sound like Romulus and Remus but alliteration does not build anything but air castles. If Richardson wants to be governor let him ponder well as to a running mate.

The El Verano Grammar School opened Monday morning with a full attendance after a two weeks vacation. Miss Alice Griffin of Glen Ellen is the principal while Mrs. Buttner and Miss Helen Longan of Santa Rosa will be the assistants for the coming term.

A chicken thief and all around thieves have made their appearance at Verano. L. Moyer former constable of El Verano, and Jack Main have lost a number of birds. Mr. Main also has missed a large gasoline tank which was empty. Looks like bootleggers' tactics. The tank was about the right thing to hold the powerful jack-ass brandy. A sharp lookout is being made for the thieves.

Charley Miller, former contender for the heavy weight championship of the world, and who now is a masseur at the famous Caliente Springs, is watching to see what Tim McGrath who is writing up the former stars in the Bulletin, will have to say about his rise and descent on the pugilistic ladder. Charley was some bruiser in his day and still holds a decision over ex-champion Big Jess Willard. At present Charley is doing well, looks good and it is said will again enter the ring, which is causing much excitement among his Sonoma Valley friends. The Roumanian wonder tips the scales at 250 pounds and is working out secretly, getting into condition at the Springs, which is an ideal training place.

Traveling Passenger and Freight Agent Houston of the S. P. Company who has his office at Santa Rosa, was here Tuesday. When asked in regards to the putting back of the train service over the Santa Rosa branch, Mr. Houston replied that as soon as the public would patronize the trains they would take steps to put them back, but the official did not mention anything about the high ticket rate the company was charging which is nearly twice as much as the auto lines. If some of the salaries of many high priced railroad men were reduced probably the company could run trains as they should. The train at any rate which pulls into this burg twice a day looks like it is made up from some logging camp instead of flagged out of a county seat.

NEWS FOR THE FARMER

State Dairy Cow Competition to End

Awards of the prizes offered in the State Dairy Cow Competition will be made at a special session of the dairy farmers conference to be held during the stock men's meetings at the University Farm School, Davis, the last week in February. The records made during November 1921, have recently been made public by F. W. Woll, professor of Animal Nutrition, who is in charge of the competition.

The average production by 282 cows that have not yet finished the ten month record period was 35.4 pounds of butterfat for the month, at nearly eight months from freshening. A Holstein cow owned by Mrs. Anita M. Baldwin of Santa Anita produced the largest amount of butterfat during November, 83.6 pounds at five and one-half months from calving.

The California Cultivator prize for November for the five highest producing grade cows in a herd was won by F. Early of Grizzly Bluff for the production of five grade Jerseys yielding an average of 48.7 pounds of butterfat for the month at about eight months from calving.

Professor Woll is at present conducting experiments with sunflower silage for dairy cows at the University Farm, at Davis. Dairy farmers and stockmen interested in this subject are invited to visit the University Farm and examine this and other kinds of silage in the experimental silos at the farm. Many other lines of investigation that are in progress at the present time will be of interest to dairy farmers and stockmen.

Twenty-Two Per Cent of California Farms Growing Grapes

California, with its variety of suitable climates, is so well adapted to the culture of grapes that it is possible to grow in the open, in some locality, all of the varieties used in the vineyards of the world. In 1920 over 22 per cent of all California farms were growing grapes, according to statistics gathered by the University of California College of Agriculture.

While the bulk of California grapes are for commercial purposes, the fruits is especially valuable for home planting because of the abundance and utility of the crop. Growers will be interested in a new publication of the University of California on the Home Vineyard, Circular 231. Persons interested may obtain full information in regard to this publication and the correspondence course on grape growing by writing to the College of Agriculture, Berkeley, Cal.

U. C. to Give New Correspondence Course on Apricots

Apricots were produced on more than one farm in every eight in California for the year 1920, according to H. M. Butterfield, Supervisor of Correspondence Courses at the University of California College of Agriculture. Production of apricots in the past ten years has increased over 35 per cent and with the organization of the apricot growers into a state wide association, efficient marketing has been developed.

As a means of encouraging increased efficiency in cultural methods as well as in marketing methods, the State College of Agriculture is now offering a correspondence course on apricot culture.

WHY EGG PRICE IS LOW

On hearing many complaints from many of the poultrymen and others interested in the poultry industry and being asked by many, "What is the cause of the drop?" Secretary H. W. Kerrigan of the Petaluma Chamber of Commerce, has the following to say:

"The drop of eggs—sure it was bound to come. I was surprised that it hasn't come sooner. The only reason it is coming now is because the car lot shippers who have had them in storage hoping against hope that something would happen to make them go up, are letting go all they have, and are flooding the markets.

"It was inevitable. Even when eggs went up to 76 cents I wondered why in the face of so many in storage. No doubt the shippers thought they could bull the market. Many have been disturbed about the drop and should be. If the weather continues as mild in the east as it has been there will be still greater drops. Our only hope is that it gets colder in the middle west and east.

"The cause of the drop is easily explained. Last year during the late winter in the middle west and eastern states there was little or no severe weather and the hens there began to lay and because of that eggs took an awful drop. The poultrymen here of course, felt it worse than any place else. The laying in those states was unprecedented.

"While in Chicago last spring, on the tariff for eggs campaign, I noticed that the shippers were buying at 35, 34, 32 and even 30 and all the time wondering if they would go up or down. I had occasion to talk to them in behalf of the tariff, and in my argument told them of the tremendous increase of laying everywhere and that we didn't need foreign eggs shipped in here. If more came it would break many a poultryman even then—because eggs were going to be lower that year than for many years. I further told them it would be no surprise to see eggs down to 24 cents. You remember the price—some places down to 18 cents in Missouri and Texas. The exchange car lot men, after I got through talking, came and said that they thought I was a little 'bearish' but later reports proved I was right.

"On my return trip to New York from New England in June where I had occasion to address the New York Exchange I learned that there was then 2,000,000 more cases of eggs in storage at that time than the year previous at the same time. Men that knew in Greenwich street and the big marts of trade said in several instances, 'I wouldn't be surprised to see eggs being peddled on the streets of New York before we get through next winter,' (meaning this winter.)

"It looks as if their prognostications were to some extent true. But we have hopes that the winter in the middle and far eastern states will tighten up. If so, eggs will go up. The very fact that they are letting go their storage stock is a good sign—it will at least give us some hopes of higher eggs this spring."

Science Cuts Frame House Fire Risk In Half

Plan by N. L. M. A.

Sketch Illustrates New Features of Fire Resistant Construction.

DANGER from fire in frame houses has been reduced fifty per cent. through improvements in construction worked out by the most competent engineers in the lumber industry. This announcement has just been made after these engineers have been working upon improved designs in frame construction during the past year with a view to reducing the fire hazard for wood houses to a minimum.

Practically no change in appearance in houses constructed by the improved methods and very little, if any, additional cost is involved, but the methods recommended by the engineers give protective features making the frame house essentially resistant to fire. Interpoising of panels and short pieces within spaces that ordinarily serve as flues for rapid spread of fire, for instance, reduces danger from this cause. Other protective improvements prevent wooden parts catching fire from chimneys, fireplaces, heating plants and steam and hot water pipes. While wood will burn and there is no such thing as a "fireproof" house within the reach of the ordinary pocketbook, the new protective measures devised by the lumber engineers offer an economical type of construction that is fire resistant and as nearly fireproof as frame construction as now developed can be made, according to their conclusions. The methods conform strictly to the scientific codes of the most progressive cities and carry a minimum of fire risk because of the necessarily slow spread of combustion in houses following the new type of construction.

(Numbers Correspond to Those on Sketch)

- (1) Fire stopping at all intersections of walls and partitions with floors, ceilings and roof.
- (2) Herring-bone fire stopping in partitions midway between floor levels.
- (3) Partition and wall corners framed solid.
- (4) Wall between porch attic, and house sheathed solid.
- (5) Header beams 20 inches from the fireplace breast. Incombustible hearth.
- (6) Wooden members 2 inches from chimney, space between filled with loose incombustible material.
- (7) Plaster applied directly to chimney breast.
- (8) Flue lining in chimneys.
- (9) Top of chimney 2 feet above peak of roof.
- (10) Protection over heating plant.
- (11) Roof framing 2 inches from chimney, flashed, permitting free movement of chimney.
- (12) Top of heating plant 15 inches from ceiling.
- (13) Furnace 8 feet from warm air riser.
- (14) Smoke pipe 1½ times its diameter below the ceiling.
- (15) Heat pipes 6 inches below ceiling.
- (16) Doubled tin pipes, ½-inch air space between in partitions, kept 1 inch from all woodwork. Steam and hot water pipes 1 inch from woodwork.
- (17) Heat pipes running through floors, fire stopped with loose incombustible material.

PLANS OF THE CLOVERDALE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The suggestions by the members of the Cloverdale Chamber of Commerce for a program of activity has been compiled into a program of work for Cloverdale. It shows what a neighboring community is doing and will be read with interest by local promotionists.

The complete program has been divided into three divisions, as follows:
Activities to be undertaken immediately because of their being selected as foremost by a large number of the members.

Projects of fundamental merit, the need of which is understood by a comparative few, but which cannot be achieved until made popular.

Improvements and activities suggested by a small number of members.

The program is elastic in its practical application. Planks of its divisions may pass from one group to another, in accordance with the state of the public mind in relation to the subject.

It is obvious that the program is not assumed to cover every activity of the organization. There will arise from time to time projects which need attention, and cannot be anticipated in advance.

The program as written is the Chamber's platform for a greater and better city. The accomplishment of the projects included in it will depend upon the intelligent leadership of the officers and directors; and enthusiastic co-operation on the part of the membership. The program presents a broad and comprehensive field for organized community endeavor.

Roads, Streets, Sidewalks

Co-operate in every possible way with state, county and city authorities for northern Sonoma county and with other civic commercial organizations, to improve the highways and roads of the district.

Formulate plan for improvement of Cloverdale streets and sidewalks.

Clean Up and Beautification

Work for a neater and more beautiful Cloverdale and provide for a general clean up and paint up day before the spring of 1922.

Auto Camp Ground

Take steps to provide a better camping ground for automobile tourists.

Stimulation of Home Trade

Co-operation among the merchants
consumers and out-of-town buyers for the creation of a real buy-at-home spirit, the adjustment of prices and the cultivation of farmer trade
by acts of mutual helpfulness.

Rest Room for Out-of-Town Shoppers

Take steps to provide a rest room and comfort station for those who come to Cloverdale on business which does not require a stop over night.

Community Co-Operation

Consider how to stimulate by every means a spirit of mutual helpfulness.

Industries

What industries should be encouraged to locate in Cloverdale? A cannery and woolen mill have been suggested.

Community Advertising

Consider how to advertise the advantages of Cloverdale in order to attract tourists and settlers.

Supplementary Activities

Assist in stopping bootlegging.

Boost The Geysers.

Lower light and power rates.

Investigate feasibility of a municipal lighting system.

Plan for new fire and building ordinance.

Foster poultry raising in the Cloverdale district.

Bring influence to bear on the consolidation of schools.

Advertise Cloverdale by means of motion picture films.

Foster agriculture and dairying in the district.

Plan for a community building.

Discourage monopoly.

Stimulate building activity, especially the building of homes.

Aid fire department.

Plan for Chamber of Commerce building.

Provide healthy entertainment for the boys and girls of the town and organize a Boy Scout club and a branch of the Camp Fire Girls.

Obtain better mail service.

Promote a town band.

Aid in reclamation of good land
along the Russian River.

Free market for farmers.

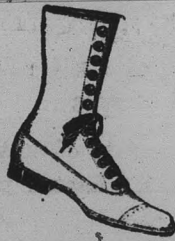

Encourage church attendance.

Revive Citrus Fair.

Devise and promote an annual celebration.

Work for the accommodation of tourists.

SONOMA VISTA NEWS

(By Hashamura Togo)

Stop! Look! Listen! Almost as important as a railroad warning. Why aren't you taking home a prize from those whist parties given by the Sonoma Vista Improvement Club? Last week's lucky participants are as follows: First ladies prize, Mrs. Bidwell; second ladies prize, Mrs. Steurmer; first gentlemen prize, Mr. Rothmuller; second gentlemen prize, Mr. Maley. We also serve refreshments; some of that good, fine flavored coffee that nobody but the women of the Club know how to make. So let us see you next time, one and all.

Who said Sonoma Vista couldn't raise 'em? You should come out and see those strong young chicks recently hatched by our expert chicken man, Charles Stevenson. Here's to you, Charlie.

S. Bosserman, Sonoma Vista's expert painter and paper hanger, left Sunday for Petaluma where he has a large contract hanging paper.

Friends of Mrs. Yerzykowiez will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from her recent illness as rapidly as can be expected.

The large brooder house being constructed by W. I. Fitzgerald will soon be completed and equipped in the most up-to-date way.

Wm. Steinkamp our prominent resort owner, is adding more rooms to his resort to accommodate his rapidly growing business.

Mr. Manuck, formerly of Manucks Resort, in El Verano, has purchased the Jacob Eley residence on Clayton avenue.

Irene Clemer, cousin of C. F. Baker, came up last Saturday to spend a few weeks in the Valley of the Moon.

Mrs. W. Daugherty was up over the week-end, visiting her husband who is in the chicken business here.

Miss Lola Adams returned on last Saturday night from Oakland and reports having an enjoyable trip.

Lloyd Chapin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chapin, who has been visiting here, left again for the metropolis.

J. N. Beach is busily engaged adding a sleeping porch on to his bungalow in Sonoma Vista.

E. Keissling and son motored to Sacramento last Friday and report a very stormy trip.

Roy Lester has just purchased a Chevrolet touring car which he is very proud of.

A. E. Joscelyn is spending a few days in San Francisco with his wife and son.

Mr. Paige reports the sale of his home to Mrs. A. Loner of San Francisco.

MRS. EDGAR CLEMENTS WAS HOSTESS

Mrs. Edgar Clements was hostess to the Jolly Twelve last Tuesday evening and the husbands of the members comprising this social organization were included. A pleasant evening of which cards and refreshments were features were enjoyed at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Clements.

discussion. No woman, even though principal of a high school, is eligible to this club.

The classes in civics, economics and history will begin studying the Washington Conference. In a month or so they will probably hold an open debate on the entire work being done at Washington.

The total enrollment to date is now 250 of which number 60 are freshmen and 15 are part-time students. The attendance is holding up exceedingly well.

Two new pupils enrolled this week in the Freshman class. They are Ella Fox and Reed Potter. Ella Fox will play the violin in the orchestra.

BEAUTIFUL NEW HOME FOR MISS ISADORE OF BOYES

Contractor Muller has started the construction of a beautiful new home at Boyes Springs for Miss Anne Isadore, chef of the Boyes Springs Hotel. The kitchen and breakfast room will be in maple and the living room and reception hall in paneled oak. The bath room will be in beautiful white tile both floor and walls.

E. Riboni has charge of the tile work, Marcy & Peterson the plumbing; A. F. Martinson the electric work, Wm. Trudgen the fire place and E. C. Woodworth the painting.

The new house is situated west of the Boyes Springs Hotel grounds and will be one of the most attractive in the valley. Its cost, it is said, will run between $2500 and $3000.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Petaluma High played against Sonoma High in the first league game of basket ball last Friday night in Union Hall. A hot contest was expected as it was said Petaluma has the best teams in the county. The teams were very evenly matched. The 130 pound team was of course victorious, but several times during the game we doubted it. All of our boys played well and brilliantly. Fuller, the star player on Petaluma's team, was not shooting well, otherwise we doubt if the game would be ours.

The Unlimited team gave us the surprise of our lives. We had heard such wonderful things about the Unlimited team of Petaluma that we were rather doubtful if our score would reach ten. But ten it did reach and then it passed and climbed steadily higher and higher. At one time in the game Petaluma's score was far above ours. Then ours climbed and passed it and then it was tied. But Petaluma made a basket and at the end of the quarter Petaluma had won the game by two points. If any one says our teams are no good just come down to the High School and say it. We'll show 'em!

The time of the High School authorities is occupied today with problems which did not formerly exist. One of the newer problems is the transportation of pupils. In former years the burden of getting to school was thrown upon the parents of the pupils themselves. It meant irregular attendance and considerable expense.

The policy of present day high schools is to furnish busses; usually the students pay only a part of the cost of their maintenance.

Petaluma High School has this year purchased four high priced busses. Responsible men of the community drive them.

Just at present Sonoma High School is fortunate in having grown persons drive four of the six busses bringing children to school. There are being transported at the present time 60 pupils or almost half of the total number in actual attendance.

Principal Goltan attended the Quarterly Schoolmasters' banquet at Hotel Whitecomb in San Francisco last Saturday. The question discussed at the banquet was the present arms conference at Washington. Able speakers among them Hon. William Kent, presented the question. A resolution was endorsed by the full membership present endorsing the four power treaty. Music and other forms of amusement served as the refreshments for the more serious

CLUB NOTES

An important meeting was held at the Woman's Club Jan. 6th. Owing to the seasons' festivities, several were absent nevertheless important matters were attended to and sincere wishes regarding the success of plans for the new year expressed.

The Mission committee reported progress on its work and the club will do much to further this important and interesting move. We hope to eventually see improved a long neglected attraction in Sonoma Valley, the chosen spot of the Indian and of the heroic Mission Padres, also the military headquarters of the Commandante of this northern frontier, General Vallejo.

The card party was a social as well as financial success. The social afternoon promises to be of unusual interest, Miss Edna Cooper having charge of the program and will give her impressions of her trip to Alaska. Mrs. F. Lombard and Mrs. H. Winter of Rineon Valley will favor those present with vocal selections.

Mrs. Koebom will serve refreshments so come and enjoy the treat in store for you.

Mrs. Fred Lowell was admitted to membership.

With best wishes for 1922,
L. V. Emparan, Club Reporter.

BRIDE AND GROOM ARE WELCOMED AT CALIENTE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Campbell who returned to their Agua Caliente home after their wedding in San Francisco Friday of last week were given a fine reception and wedding supper at Joe Garon's last Saturday night. The dining room was nicely decorated and Mr. and Mrs. Garon prepared a fine feast including ravioli and other special dishes.

Mrs. Campbell was formerly Lillian Cooper of San Francisco. The groom is the well known carpenter of Agua Caliente.

The happy couple were the recipients of many presents and were heartily congratulated by friends and neighbors.

SURPRISE PARTY AT THE FOSTER RANCH

A very pleasant surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Carlstence this week. The evening was spent in playing games and dancing and every one enjoyed the midnight supper. ## VINEBURG NEWS

Mr. Frank Groskopf was a week end guest of Vallejo friends.

Mr. Fred Batto, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Albert Groskopf Jr. and son Herbert John, transacted business in Petaluma last Saturday.

Messrs P. Baylaq, Peter Baylaq, Babsitist Baylaq and Peter Bauchau, all prominent business men of San Francisco, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. Dupouy on Saturday evening and Sunday at Sonoma Valley's pioneer summer resort, Vineyard Villa. The gentlemen were on a tour through Sonoma county.

Mr. W. D. Nichol has returned home and his friends will be glad to hear that he is improving fast after his late illness.

George W. Reed, Sonoma's popular station agent and one of the W. P. Cos. most trusted officers, was exchanging greetings with friends here last Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. McDevitt and family of Sonoma, after spending the Christmas holidays at the Summit hotel, returned to their home on Saturday and on Sunday were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto and Miss Adele Andreux.

Granville Harris Sr., one of Sonoma's prominent and progressive citizens and ex-city trustee of Sonoma, was shaking hands with friends here one day last week.

During the year 1921 the receipts of grain, mill feed and hay amounted to over 120 carloads at Batto's spur without including coal, lime, brick cement and hardware and other commodities which the pioneer firm of John Batto & Sons handle.

Mesdames Grover Rubke and Louise Martin motored to Napa on Wednesday last and were the guests of friends in that city.

We understand that the Box Car Improvement Club will change its name to the Pastime Club as some of the members have more time to pass than they know what to do with. A good idea. Time will tell.

MRS. HAROLD PAULI ENTERTAINS

The Harold Pauli home at Schellville was the meeting place of the Bridge Club Thursday. On next Wednesday Mrs. Pauli will entertain the Jolly Twelve.

MASK BALL AT FETTERS.

The Sonoma Valley Improvement Club will hold its first benefit dance at Feters on the 21st. It will be a masquerade.

Attorney Jack Ford of Santa Rosa was in town Saturday last and while here called on his old friend, S. C. Cenechi, who has been on the sick list.

TIERNEY WINS IN WATER COMPANY CASE

An opinion given by Judge Thompson Monday in the case of the Sonoma Valley Water, Light and Power company against Thos. F. Tierney, sustained the demurrer of the defendant to the second amended complaint of the company, and denied the motion of the plaintiffs to further amend the complaint. A temporary restraining order previously issued was ordered set aside. The restraining order was issued some time ago in the local courts to keep Tierney from collecting the amount of a judgment he was given against the company.

Tierney originally got judgment for $948 plus costs and later, W. Chester et al, filed a suit asking that the judgment be set aside, claiming that their former employee had failed to turn over certain money and collections due the company. Judge Thompson held that Chester should have brought in the counter claim at the time of the first suit. The Court's ruling on this completely exonerates Tierney, who will now proceed to collect his judgment.

HARD TIMES PARTY

White collars and all "dolling up" is prohibited at the Hard Times party at Panerazi's tonight. Prizes are being offered for the costumes best in keeping with the spirit of the evening. There will be a fine supper at midnight and Miss Perkins jazz will furnish the music.

The Sonoma Farm Center met on Thursday night and re-elected its officers for another term.

OUR GOLF LINKS GET NOTICE IN OAKLAND TRIBUNE

Says the Oakland Tribune of last Tuesday: "If the San Francisco Seals accept the proposition to make their spring training camp a Boyes Springs, which quite likely they will, the players on the club will get a fine surprise when they hit camp. Duffy Lewis, who was in Oakland Sunday to look over the boys in the Oakland Tribune Midwinter League, gave out information that he and nine other members of the Valley of the Moon Golf and Country Club, recently organized, have contracted for the laying out of $20,000 golf links and that eighteen holes will be completed by the time the spring training season opens for the Pacific Coast League clubs.

The ten members of the club have purchased 230 acres of the Rudolph Spreckels property and the Bigelow home. The links when completed will be one of the finest in the state, said Duffy Lewis. The membership of the club will be limited to three hundred. The club now has a membership of thirty, with many applications on hand, and it is expected that the full membership will be reached in less than a year. Work on the new links will be started tomorrow or Thursday. A number of members of the Salt Lake ball club will be given employment at wrecking old sheds and homes and clearing the fields. Joe Jenkins, catcher for the Salt Lake Bees, is now on the scene and ready for action as a wrecker. Frank Burr is president of the club, R. G. Lichtenberg, vice-president and G. Fitzgerald secretary. Duffy Lewis and six others are directors. Many of the members of the San Francisco Seals, as well as Charles Graham and Charles Doe Straub are nuts on golfing, and the news of the new links might hurry them in making their decision on the selection of their spring training camp."

PROPERTY CHANGES HANDS

The former Rice property at Schellville to Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Jamar of San Francisco who have taken possession and are making improvements.

The former Cordill property near the State Home, to F. H. Monk and wife of Fresno who expect to take possession within a few days.

The former Steward property on Buena Vista avenue to Miss Schneider of Pasadena.

The Nichol property in Second St. West to Mr. Olsen of San Francisco who intends to go into the poultry business.

Vic Leveroni and A. Maffei enjoyed a hunt in the rice field county last Sunday and brought home some fine geese.
